Who is Governor?

We think that Randall is elected, and the figures justify us in that belief. We received yesterday only the return from Oconto county, sent to the Free Democrat, and which we think fully reliable. Our totals yesterday, were as follows, with 48 counties official, 8 reported, and three (Door, Clark, and Burnett) to hear from:

Randall.	Cro-s.
9,802	8,824

The correction for Oconto county reduces Cross to 8,780—leaving Randall a majority of 522. Offsetting the "five towns"—810 for Cross, Randall still has 212 for contingencies. We give, also, paragraphs from the Madison papers relative to Chippewa county, but at present make no further change in our figures. MacGraw is pretty certainly elected, and probably Schurz and Hastings.

No further returns were received at Madison yesterday.

The State Ticket.

We add to our table several additional counties from which we have the full vote or majorities for all of the candidates, and the result in them all (thirty-four) is as follows:

Randall,	24,457	Cross,	24,491
Schurz,	24,872	Campbell,	26,098
Thomas,	23,713	Jones,	26,335
Hastings,	24,786	Babich,	24,906
Jackson,	24,420	Bouck,	25,284
McMynn,	24,534	Draper,	25,265
McGregor,	24,838	Squires,	25,807
MacGraw,	24,798	McGurry,	24,597

In the above counties, the candidates standfas follows;

Cross leads Randall,	34 votes.
Campbell leads Schurz,	224 "
Jones leads Thomas,	2617 "
Babich leads Hastings	170 "
Bouck leads Jackson	764 "
Draper leads McMynn	731 "
Squires leads McGregor,	1171 "
MacGraw leads McGarry	201 "

THE WAR WITH MORMONDOM.—Further advices yesterday, confirmed the accounts of Brigham Young's rebellion against the authority of U. S. The administration is now seeing the results of crippling and delaying the Utah expedition for the purpose of aiding the designs of the pro-slavery managers in Kansas. The force finally sent out, is so weak that it may be entirely cut off by the Mormon fanatics.

MISSOURI STATE BONDS.—The news of the passage of the bill by the Missouri Legislature, providing for a State tax to pay the interest on outstanding bonds, is good news to bankers in this State and Illinois, who have been obliged to keep a large amount of capital idle in the hands of the State officers, to make up for depreciation in Missouri stocks, which have now risen to 79

LA CROSSE & MIL. R. R.—The Portage City Record says that the track of this road is now laid to within 7 miles of Mauston, and the contractors expected to reach that place in a few days.

Returns from Oconto County.

The Free Democrat of yesterday contained the the following letter:

OCONTO, Nov. 23.

The majority in Oconto county for Cross, is 16. At one precinct where 41 votes were cast for the Republican ticket, and none for the Democrats, the returns only state the whole number of votes cast for each office, without stating for whom given. Had the returns been properly made out, the Republican majority, in Oconto county, would have been 146. Returns from every precinct but two, in the Assembly District, give Dr. Hall, the Democratic candidate, 45 majority. He is probably elected, though the precincts to be heard from will reduce his majority.

Yours, truly, A. B. JACKSON.

P. S.—I have arranged to have the affidavits of the inspectors sent with the returns from this county, showing that 41 votes were cast for the Republican ticket.

ANOTHER RUMOR—CHIPPEWA COUNTY.—The Monroe Patriot of yesterday morning has the following paragraph:

CHIPPEWA CO.—The Cross papers claim this county by 187 majority for Cross. A gentleman who left Chippewa Falls last Sunday, says that Chippewa county has given Randall a majority, but how much he does not know.

The Journal of yesterday says with reference to the same county:

A gentleman named Miller, was here yesterday, direct from Chippewa county, who, without knowing the exact figures, was certain that Cross' majority, in that county, was less than 100.

THE MORMON DELEGATE TO CONGRESS.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from the plains, says:

In consideration of the journey of Dr. Bernhisel to Washington, whose affairs are in such a condition among his constituency, I feel bound to send you the following information concerning the mode of his election, for the accuracy of which I do not vouch, for it is not of my personal knowledge, but for which I send you privately my authority. It has been kept to the time on the Sunday before the day fixed by law for the election, Brigham Young rose in the Tabernacle, where an audience of several thousands was collected, and spoke substantially to this effect:

"Brethren, to-morrow, you know, is the day to vote for delegate to Congress, so the law says. But I don't see why to-day isn't just as holy, and why we shouldn't take a vote to-day. Brother Bernhisel, brethren, has done well enough in Congress, though nobody's of much use there, and it is worth while to send anybody to Washington, I guess we might as well send him back; it he can't do us any good, he won't do us any harm. So all you that are in favor of sending Brother Bernhisel back will please rise."

Accordingly the whole audience rose. The next day, at the election, but few votes were cast, and those all for Dr. Bernhisel, it being left to be understood to oppose him, although he is said to be very unpopular in Salt Lake City. If I do Dr. Bernhisel any wrong by this narration, I am sure you will be willing to correct anything which he shall prove to be inaccurate.

What does it Bode.

There is an ominous gathering of Barstow politicians in our city at present. E. B. Kelsey, Tom Falvey, Otis Hoyt, Vittum, Stevens, Lees, Temp. Clark, et al., are here. It reminds us of two years ago.

What's in the wind? "Supplements?"—Madison Journal.

TERRIBLE BLOW.—A terrible North West gale of wind and snow raged last night. This morning a schooner, whose name we have not ascertained went on to the bar and sunk. There were rumors that the crew were lost, but they were without authority.

The schooner "Constellation" broke from her moorings at Dickinson's Pier, Waukegan, and went ashore about half a mile South of the Pier. She had on board about 6,000 bushels of wheat.—Chicago Journal, of yesterday.

Last Appearance and Benefit of Miss Davenport.

This evening is set apart at the Metropolitan theatre for the benefit of Miss Davenport. She will appear as Camille, in the beautiful play of that name, supported by MacFarland's entire company. In this play Miss Davenport excels. It is her favorite character, and it has been very generally conceded by the severest critics in the country that in her personation of it she is without an equal, not only in America, but among the famed stars of the Old World. It is seldom that we have an opportunity out here in the distant West of witnessing an exhibition of such rare talent, and we trust our citizens will show their good taste and appreciation of their merit by turning out this evening and giving Miss Davenport a rousing benefit. It will be one of the most refined, chaste, and highly intellectual dramatic entertainments that has ever been given in our city, and we should be pleased to see Young's Hall crowded.

Owing to the great length of the play there will be no after-performance. Seats can be secured during the day at the Hall.

VERY LIKE WINTER.—A violent snow storm set in here about 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and the snow continued to fall fast till after midnight. Then a strong North West wind sprung up, which swept the snow into deep drifts and whistled a lively tune through the streets and about the eaves of the city. Towards morning, it blew a gale, and there is reason to fear some serious disasters on the lakes. Yesterday the weather, though clear, was very cold.

Just fifteen years ago; to wit: on the 18th November, 1842, winter set in, in the same rude fashion, and there was good sleighing and steady frost from that date till April, 1843. Let us hope, that 1842 will not, in this respect at least, prove a prototype of 1857.

EARLY CLOSING OF STORES.—The following paper has been addressed to the Dry Goods dealers of this city. It is signed by about 40 clerks in the leading houses, and makes out a strong appeal, which we do not doubt will be favorably considered by those to whom it is addressed:

To the Dry Goods Dealers of the City of Milwaukee.

GENTLEMEN:—We, the undersigned, salesmen in your several establishments, respectfully submit your careful examination of the following facts and petition. Most of you have doubtless, at some previous time, occupied the same position that we now do, and can fully appreciate the force of our assertion, when we say that a Dry Goods clerk has no time that he can call his own, to devote to either mental improvement or social enjoyment. Many of them can seldom find time to read the Daily papers. Could we have our evenings to ourselves during the winter months, it would afford us an opportunity to read, to attend lectures and religious meetings, and to otherwise improve our mental, moral and social qualities, all of which we feel would be of immense advantage to us, and cost you nothing.

We feel that your interests are ours, and would not ask you to take any steps that would cause you the slightest loss. On the contrary, we are willing to devote all our energies, early and late, when your interest demand it. We are confident that after a careful consideration of these facts and others that will suggest themselves to your minds you will feel it to be both a duty and a pleasure to grant our humble request to close your several places of business as early as 7 o'clock P. M. from this time till the 1st of April next. For such a favor we shall be fully grateful and will endeavor by greater diligence in the discharge of our duties, to merit an increase of your confidence and esteem.

THE SCHOONER CLIPPER CITY AGROUND.—The schooner Clipper City, Captain Edwards, which left this port on Wednesday for Manitowoc with a small cargo of merchandise, was obliged to put back in the gale that night, and is coming in, she went aground directly inside of the harbor pier.—She lay there all day yesterday, but it was expected that she would be got off to-day, if the weather should prove favorable, without sustaining any serious damage.

MILITARY.—The Light Guard paraded yesterday afternoon, in their overcoats, and marched through several of the principal streets, to the inspiriting music of the Milwaukee City Band.—As only a portion of the Battalion are yet provided with Military overcoats, they did not turn out with very full ranks. They looked, and marched, however, as well as ever. The Milwaukee City Band played admirably, though it was cold enough to freeze both fingers and instruments.

COLD WEATHER.—Yesterday was a bitter cold day, more like mid-winter, than mid-November. The river was skimmed with ice, and the snow in the streets froze hard. We felt for the improvident "muskrats," who are said to have built rain walls to their habitations, forseeing "an open winter."

☞ We learn that Rev. SAMUEL DAY, late of Bellows Falls, Vt., having accepted a call from the South Presbyterian Church, of this city, has entered upon the duties of his new charge. He has the reputation of being an able preacher as well as an efficient Pastor.

LECTURE ON INDIA.—The third and last lecture of Mr. JACKSON on India, will be given to-night, at Amany Hall. The subject is the Mutiny, which is now exciting so much interest throughout the civilized world.

To the Public.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Milwaukee, feeling the great importance of a thorough permanent organization for the relief of the poor of this city, would hereby call a Mass meeting to be held at Albany Hall on Monday 23d inst., at half past seven P. M.

A general attendance is earnestly requested

MR. JONES' BENEFIT.—On Monday night, Mr. Jones a young comedian, and one the best actors in McFarland's troops takes a benefit at the Metropolitan Theatre. The play of Richard the III. will be performed on the occasion, Mr. Lyne, an actor already known in our city, taking the character of Richard III. Mr. Jones plays well, and with spirit, and he has become a decided favorite at the Metropolitan.

He deserves a good benefit.

PORK PACKING AT CINCINNATI.—The weather having turned cool, and being favorable for pork business, two of the slaughtering establishments have commenced operations. One Cincinnati house killed sixteen hundred head, and had it cut in the course of this evening. At another house about 200 were slaughtered. Should the weather continue favorable the business will progress without interruption, the arrivals being fair for the season, and a large number having been contracted for, delivered the month, they will be pushed forward without delay. The packers presented a heavy appearance to-day. A lot of 800 head on the spot was offered at $6,00 per 100 lbs net, without finding a purchaser. There were buyers at $5,00, and $5,25 would have been paid, perhaps, holders manifested a disposition to accept that figure.—Packers are generally quite indifferent about operating. There is not, we think, a single purchaser in market.—The season is regarded with a great deal of doubt, and there is more timidity manifested, even on the part of those who are noted for their "back-bone," than we have noticed for many years. The course of the trade will, as remarked previously, depend very much on the condition of the money market, but in any event, there promises to be a reserve that will operate against the establishment of prices that were calculated upon during the summer.—*Cin. FLOATING ICE ON THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI.—We learn from the St. Paul Pioneer of the 17th that on the previous day the first ice of the season came floating past the city. It was not thick, and more like slush ice than solid cakes. The indications for a change of temperature were very favorable, and the prospect for an open river for a week at least were very flattering. The War Eagle reported considerable thick ice between St. Paul and Hastings.

WELLAND CANAL NAVIGATION SUSPENDED.—A telegraphic dispatch states that one of the locks at St. Catharines was broken yesterday. In consequence, nav gation is for a time suspended.—Detroit Adv., 17th.

Conviction of Cancemi.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.

The second trial of the burglar Cancemi, has resulted in his conviction of the murder of the policeman Anderson.

Col. Alexander's letter to Adjutant General Cooper, says I cannot for fear of this being intercepted, tell you the strength of my command. I send returns of it. It is strong enough to defend itself and its supplies; whether it is able to assume and sustain an offensive position, remains to be seen; but should the command which I have heard are in the rear, come up in time, I think we will have sufficient force to carry out an active invasion if we are obliged to winter on the mountains. You can perceive by reference to Stansbury's maps that we have an open road to Salt Lake City in the Spring, which I am told is open early. By this line attack can be made, and attention called from the main road, that by Fort Bridger may then be traversed by troops.

The Bear River route is however, said to be the best one into the valley, the other through canyons can be defended by a handful against thousands, and it is moreover, so easily obstructed that in a week it could be made utterly impassable.

The want of cavalry is severely felt, and we are powerless on account of this deficiency to effect any chastisement of the marauding Indians that are continually hovering around us. MILWAUKEE:

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 20.

PROCLAMATION.

FOR a year of singular fruitfulness; for the continued favors of providence that has cast one of its pleasantest lands; and for all the manifold forms of the Divine bounty vouchsafed us, a common sentiment of unfeigned and heartfelt gratitude, which pervades every breast.

From an early period in our colonial history, in most of the States, a day has been designated, annually, for purposes of public thanksgiving and the acknowledgment of the good gifts of the Common Benefactor; and in compliance with this appropriate and time-honored custom, I hereby recommend that Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November, be this observed throughout the State.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the great L. S. seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in Madison, this sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

By the Governor, COLES BASHFORD.

Symptoms of Rebellion.

Numerous indications have recently appeared of an organized rebellion in the democratic camp. The ultra Southern portion of the party seems determined to push its success to the utmost.—Having, through the truckling of northern politicians, gained much, they are determined to attempt complete control. They do not mean that the brave words of their northern allies shall be mere words, but that they shall carry out the spirit of the covenant. They are very well aware that, wherever in the Free States the democratic party retains any power, it is by denying its pro-Slavery tendency. All this will have to be changed. It looks now as if the leading Southern managers have determined on a bold move this winter—the effect of which will be to drive the northern democrats to the wall on the Slavery question, and not allow them to play fast and loose any longer. The admission of Kansas as a State with the Bogus Constitution just made, to be submitted directly to Congress, will probably be the test point, and Mr. Buchanan and his northern friends will have to yield, and thus forever lose the little hold they still have in the free states, or refusing, they will alienate themselves from the Slave State democracy, by whose votes alone the Administration stands. Thus, this democratic party, which owes its success for some years past to its deceit of both the friends of freedom and the pro-slavery portion of the people, will fall, torn asunder by the agitation of the very question which it has tried to ignore. It has given the fire-eaters the inch, and they will have the ell.

The Barrier against Slavery.

The News takes exception to our remark that the Republican Party stands alone in its opposition to Slavery-extension, and interposes the sole barrier that now exists against the spread of the "peculiar institution." Nevertheless the fact is as we state, and the political history of the last two years proves it. The News, however, affects to believe that the "National Democracy" is to be credited with all the Free States which have been added to the Union within the past ten, or twelve years. It says:

Now, it should not be forgotten, that every advance of free institutions over the new States, from the beginning, has been made under the auspices of the Democratic party. Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, here in the West, are all free States, and all owe their freedom to the liberal and enlightened policy of the Federal Democracy. Where was the boasted "Republican" "barrier against slavery," when these States were in process of formation?

The barrier was to be found in the memorable Ordinance of 1787, "forever prohibiting" SLAVERY in the North West Territory, but of which five of the above named States were formed, and in the Missouri Compromise of 1820, setting up the line of 36, 30, as the impassable limit to the encroachments of the Slave Power. Both these "barriers," the "ancient landmarks" of our Republican forefathers, the "National Democracy" have removed, leaving SLAVERY free to go wherever it would, and to extend its blighting influence over all the territory of the Republic. And it was the destruction of these barriers which led to the organization of the Republican Party which now opposes a living rampart to the assaults and aggressions of the Slave Power.

Minnesota and Pacific Railroad.

"Minnesota and Pacific." This is rather vague, as the designation of a railroad route; but we understand that it is the corporate name of the system of roads projected in Northern Minnesota, from Stillwater to St. Paul, and St. Anthony, and thence northwest to the head of navigation, on the Red River of the North, in the general direction of Stevens' route to the Pacific, with one branch, even longer than the main route, from St. Anthony to Crow Wing, and thence to the British line at Pembina. The destiny of these 600 miles of road is clearly connected, with a future extension to the Pacific, since the first route directly communicates with Stevens' well-known survey; while the branch route up the Mississippi, and to the Red River settlements between Pembina and Lake Winnepeg, may prove even more important, inasmuch as it will divert, in a southeast direction, and make tributary to the Wisconsin roads, the future commerce of the Saskatchewan Basin of British America—a fertile and inhabitable district 360,000 square miles in extent, and beyond which practicable passes are said to communicate with Vancouver's Island, and the Pacific coast.

Indeed; there is much reason to believe that the British Government are now taking measures for a railroad connection with the Pacific, of which these sections—Sarnia to Grand Haven, Milwaukee to St. Paul, and St. Paul to Pembina, or St. Vincent;—will be ever territory of the United States; and it is not improbable, that our own Congressional action, on this vital question, may lay far behind the secret, but resolute policy of Canada, and the Northern country.

Our readers will perceive at a glance, that the Minnesota enterprise has an international importance. We are informed that EDWARD RICE Esq., of St. Paul, the President of the company, is now at the Newhall House, in this city, en route for Washington, with the Maps of Definite Location of the entire main route, and of the branch line from St. Anthony to Crow Wing. The surveys have been satisfactorily effected, under the direction of D. C. Shepard Esq., Chief Engineer, since July last, and the right of the Company to the magnificent grant of lands by the last Congress, will speedily be consummated. Such energy and celerity are remarkable, even in a country so "fast" as Minnesota is reputed.

We are informed that the western half of the main route from Stillwater to the head of navigation on the Red River, developes a region of great beauty, hitherto unknown to government explorers. Doubtless the Company will publish the observations of their surveying parties: but it is a novelty in railroad history that the stakes of a railroad line should be the evidences of a First Discovery, for a district of country as large as an average Atlantic State.

We are encouraged to hope for further particulars, expressly prepared for the columns of the Sentinel, of those unique Summer Campaign's of Mr. Shepard and his associates in the Engineering Department of the Minnesota and Pacific Railroad Company.

☞ The Milwaukee News and Madison Argus, have been prating about Judge RANDALL'S unpopularity at home, but the official figures show that with a majority of 400 he runs 75 votes ahead of his ticket. When the vote shows Mr. Cross to be as popular at his home, we will discuss that point with the Democracy.—Waukesha Republican.

The Kansas Constitution.

The Kansas correspondent of the New York Times sends to that paper such portions of the new constitution as have been agreed upon in the Convention. We copy the part relating to Slavery, the topic of chief interest both in Kansas and elsewhere. This is the work of the pro-slavery party of the territory, the chairman of the committee to which that subject is assigned in the Convention being Hugh M. Moore, by birth and education a Georgian. At the threshhold of the new constitution is a "long bill of rights," from which we copy the following section:

Twenty fifth—Free Negroes shall not be permitted to live in this State under any circumstances.

We copy without abridgement the article relating to Slavery:

SLAVERY.

Sec. 1. The right of property is before and higher than any constitutional sanction, and the right of the owner of a slave to such slave and its increase is the same, and is inviolable as the right of the owner of any property whatever.

Sec. 2. The Legislature shall have no power to pass laws for the emancipation of slaves without the consent of their owners, or without paying their owners, previous to emancipation, a full equivalent in money for the slaves so emancipated. They shall have no power to prevent emigrants to the State from bringing with them such persons as are deemed slaves by the laws of any one of the United States, or Territories, so long as any person of the same age or description shall be continued by the laws of this State; provided, that such person or slave be the bona fide property of such emigrant; and provided also, that laws may be passed to prohibit the introduction of slaves into this State who have committed high crimes in other states or Territories. They shall have power to pass laws to permit the owners of slaves to emancipate them, saving the rights of creditors, and preventing them from becoming a public charge. They shall have power to oblige the owners of slaves to treat them with humanity—to provide for their necessary food and clothing—to obtain from all injuries to them, extending to life or limb—and in case of neglect or refusal to comply with the direction of such laws, to have such slave or slaves sold for the benefit of the owner or owners.

Sec. 3. In the prosecution of slaves for crimes of higher grade than petit larceny, the Legislature shall have no power to deprive them of an impartial trial by a Petit Jury.

Sec. 4. Any person who shall dismember or deprive a slave of life shall suffer such punishment as would be inflicted in case the like offence had been committed on a free white person, and on the like proof, except in case of insurrection of said slave.

"BRIDGE CREEK" HEARD FROM.—The Bridge Creek precinct which became notorious in the Bashford and Barstow trial, gives Cross 3 and Randall 23 votes.—Madison Argus.

The Argus forgets to tell how "Bridge Creek" became notorious. No poll was held and but one voter resided in that precinct at the Gubernatorial election two years ago. Nevertheless, a supplement, duly certified and sworn to, was sent up to the Barstow State Canvassers at Madison, setting forth that "Bridge Creek" had given ninety-seven votes for Barstow and twenty-three for Bashford! This deliberate swindle was coolly allowed by the State Board and the bogus votes counted for Barstow. Upon the trial before the Supreme Court, this, with other like frauds, was proved beyond all doubt, or denial. Thus it was that "Bridge Creek" became notorious.

Republicanism Among the Farmers.

The estimated Republican majority in St. Lawrence County is 4,000. Of its entire population, 11,427 are farmers; Kings County gives a pro-slavery Democratic majority of 8,000. It has only 476 farmers. In all the counties of the State where the farming population bears a large proportion to the entire number of the inhabitants, there, even in this season of political defeat, the Republican principles will be found to bear sway. New York City gives the Fewer Mug Democracy a majority of 22,000—its cobble stone streets and flagged sidewalks to the contrary notwithstanding. Its pleasure, are not favorable to agricultural enterprises. But the existence of only 103 farmers in her limits, will account somewhat for the benighted Democracy of her politics. Fernando Wood ploughs with other cattle than oxen, and harvests men instead of grain. Chautauque County, on the other hand, uncursed with any of those large cities so hateful to Thomas Jefferson, gives the Republican ticket 9,000 majority. Ship has 9,249 farmers among her voters. Hamilton County has gone Democratic by 200. Hamilton County has but 177 farmers, and gave 850 majority against the Republican ticket. Putnam County has only 1,957 farmers in her population and in Rockland there are but 1,223. Each of these has just given a Democratic majority. Oneida, on the other hand, with her population of 11,880 farmers; Cayuga with 8,234, Delaware with 7,448, Jefferson with 7,000, Madison with 7,019, Onondaga with 9,079, Oswego with 8,667, Steuben with 9,696, Wayne with 7,924, Washington with 7,205,—indeed, all the counties in the State, having a decidedly agricultural character, are as decidedly Republican in their politics. It is in the honesty, the intelligence, the simplicity and the steadiness of the farmers of New York, that the politics of free men and free soil find a congenial place, and take deep root. While agriculture is the source of the nation's wealth, it is the basis of its liberties.—Alb. Eve. Journal.

Walker, Bronson & Co.

We alluded briefly in yesterday's issue, to a rumor which was afloat concerning the solvency of the old and well known firm of Walker, Bronson & Co. Last evening we were made acquainted with the facts in the case, which we deem it better to publish than allow the street rumors to gain further credence. They are these: Messrs. Bronson & Co. have allowed part of their acceptances, drawn by another concern which has been doing business for them, to go to protest, because it is largely indebted to them, and the firm could not in justice to themselves make any further advances. None of the firm's genuine paper has gone to the wall. This is the whole amount of the "suspension" of Walker, Bronson & Co. They have not assigned, neither will they," as currently reported on the street.

Walker, Bronson & Co. have stood for years at the head of the grain dealers of Chicago.—During last year, their bank account exceeded twelve million dollars, and it is believed that their business during the present season, dull times and all, has averaged one hundred thousand dollars per day. In the course of the recent commotion in the commercial world, caused by the monetary difficulties, they have sustained many heavy losses; and there are few houses in the country doing such an extensive business, who have witnessed the shocks of the crisis so successfully. We have every confidence that a few weeks will see them out of their present difficulties.—Chicago Press.

GREEN CO. MURDER CASE.—We have hitherto refrained from saying anything relative to the reported murder in this county, because nothing but suspicion rested upon the parties, and suspicion as often rests upon the innocent as the guilty. In another column the reader will see the case as it rested at 10 o'clock on the night of the first day. Up to Tuesday P. M.—time of going to press—nothing materially new had been developed. Examination will probably last several days.

Our opinion, at this time, is that the prosecution will fail to establish anything against John S. Sawyer or Jesse Weaver, in the matter set forth in the complaint.

P. S.—Sawyer & Weaver Acquitted. Tuesday, 5 o'clock P. M.—We have just time to state that J. B. Sawyer and Jesse Weaver are acquitted; there not being evidence enough on the part of the prosecution to commit them.—Monroe (Green Co.) Sentinel.

SAD AFFAIR.—We learn that the body of a Mrs. Ellsworth, a resident of Monticello, in this county, was taken from the river at that point on Tuesday morning. Life was extinct. It was supposed that the lady must have drowned herself on Saturday night, as she had not been seen since that time. It appears that ever since the loss of her husband she has been gloomy and dispirited, giving evidence of a disordered mind. The sequel is a sad one.—Monroe Sentinel.

SOUTHERN WISCONSIN RAILROAD.—The track layers to-day, [Wednesday] will have the rail laid into Juda, and by Saturday night, will probably have finished all the side-tracks. It is now but eight miles from Juda to Monroe, and a little more hard work will bring the cars to this point. Let every man who has a cent in money or a bushel of wheat, pay the same to B. Dunwiddie, Director, or Henry Thompson, Esq., agent, and those gentlemen will faithfully apply the same to the taking of front out of bond. It will not do to let the track-layers cease until the last switch in this town is laid.—Monroe Sentinel.

SENTENCED.—In the Circuit Court last week, Peglow was sentenced to serve in the Penetentiary for the term of his natural life. Franz for ten years, and Gammel for three years.

The Sheriff leaves for Waupun this morning with the prisoners in charge.—Manitowoc Tribune Nov. 14.

Particulars of the Explosion of the Tug Noah P. Sprague.

The Detroit Free Press brings the following particulars of the explosion of this Tug:

Directly in front of the city, in the act of steaming down the river, the tug Noah P Sprague blew up, and was torn into a thousand pieces and sunk out of sight in a moment, carrying down eight souls with her. The circumstances are as follows: The tug had in tow the schooner S. B. Pomeroy and the barque Sunshine, the latter being secured alongside, and the former towing astern by a line. Captain James F. Snow, of the Sprague, the only man who escaped without serious injury, had been aboard of the Sunshine all the afternoon, and at about three o'clock was called by his first mate, who informed him that a vessel below wanted a tow. He got up from the transom, where he had been asleep, and went aboard of the tug. They were then just below the foot of Belle Isle, and nearly opposite the Water Works. Captain McNeil, of the Sunshine, stood upon his forecastle deck, looking towards the city, Seeing Captain Snow standing near his cabin, on the deck of the tug, he made some remark to him, which the latter not understanding, he stepped from his own deck upon the rail of the Sunshine. At the same instant, the boiler exploded, and both Captains were thrown down by the concussion. The next instant a storm of iron, coal, broken spars, and machinery, commenced raining down upon the deck of the barque.

A great quantity of water was thrown on board, together with two flues belonging to the boiler of the tug, about eight feet of the smoke-pipe, several feet of steam pipe, including the throttle valve, and a large piece of the boiler.—Large pieces of timber from the hull of the tug also fell upon the deck of the vessel, endangering the lives of those on board, while a perfect hailstorm of coal fell in all directions. The inmates of the vessel being retarded by the shock, she swung around and lay, in a moment, in the midst of a scene of perfect devastation. The water was covered with fragments of floating wood, but no tangible shape was left to denote the existence of the handsome little tug that but a moment before had puffed and paddled along with its heavy burthen. Captain McNeil informed us that, upon being knocked down, he recovered himself as soon as possible, and after the fragments of the wreck had ceased falling, walked to the side and looked over. The tug had disappeared entirely from sight, either having sunk, or been blown into atoms.

The engineer, Thos. Allen, states that the boilers were working under a pressure of from seven to eight pounds of steam. Just before the explosion he went into the engine room, and tried the water gauges, finding three fush cocks. He then ascended the stairs, and turned to go to his cabin, when the boiler exploded, after which he had no consciousness until he found himself in the water. He was blackened and burned by the steam, and his thigh broken by a blow from something which inflicted a terrible gash at the same time. The appearance of the Sunshine, as she was being towed ashore, was that of a perfect wreck. If she had gone through a hard-fought engagement, and stood in the midst of a storm of cannon balls, her rigging could not have been more effectually demolished. The canvas was mostly unbent, and was literally torn to ribbons, while the spars and cordage were loosened and displaced in most astonishing confusion. A large piece of the boiler passed directly through the mainsail and tore it to pieces. The fore-topmast was carried away, and broken into several pieces. The main-top mast was broken and remained in its bearing position, while the yards were torn from their places and broken in such a manner as hardly to be recognizable.—Pieces of the hull of the tug were lodged in the rigging. The top-sails, jibs, and gaff top-sails were converted into strings. The fore-mast was lifted bodily about three inches, and remained in that position, and the forward pump was observed in the same remarkable manner. $2,000 will probably be required to repair her damages.

The Sprague was a new tug, having been running but about three months. She was built in Buffalo last summer, at a cost of $17,000. It is reported that an insurance of $15,000 was effected on her. She was considered one of the fastest on the river, which circumstance is supposed by some to have been the cause of the disaster, as the tug Martin was coming down at the same time with two vessels in tow, and the efforts of the two tugs looked like a trial of speed. This is denied by those on board. Capt. McNeil, of the Sunshine, also stated to us that he saw no signs of a disposition to race, and did not believe that such existed. The Sprague was owned by Messrs. R. R. Johnson of Buffalo, E. A. Bruce of Chicago, and Capt. Snow.

The telegraph has already given the names of the eight persons whose lives were lost by the disaster.

FACTS FROM THE NEW YORK CENSUS.—The Albany Evening Journal has the following facts collated from the N. Y. census of 1855:

Counting the Dwellings in the State in 1855, we will be astonished to learn that there were 522,325 in number, and of the value of $664,899,867! Will any imagine that in this comparatively and really old community, there were then in use for the nurture and shelter of young Republicans, 88,092 Log Houses? The Frame Dwellings were 397,633 in number. Of Brick, there were 57,450, and of Stone, 7,586.

And yet that fine Log House is suitable architecture in the Empire State, is proved by the fact, that one-half of its immense territory is still a wilderness. New York has but 28,827,840 acres of improved land. Of unimproved, she has 13,100,662 acres—from which labor and young Manhood flee as from a famine, and seek the uttermost parts of the West. Beautiful as we are of the wealth and power of this leading State in the Confederacy, this fact proves that we are but half developed upon our present scheme of civilization.

The number of Farms in New York in 1855 was 231,740—their cash value was $799,358,367 the cash value of the Live Stock upon them was $108,776,053—and the cash value of the Tools and Implements used in working them, was $26,927,602. How good is the Agriculture of a State, it perhaps is not the business of a Census to tell us. But a comparison of some of the statistics from the Farms, contained in the United States Census of 1850, with those presented by this volume and gathered in 1855, will excite attention and should excite inquiry. We New Yorkers cut nearly 600,000 tons of Hay less in the latter year than in the former—harvested nearly 4,000,000 bushels less of Wheat—over a million bushels less of Rye—raised 700,000 bushels less of Buckwheat—grew of Potatoes 200,000 bushels less—had 34,000 less of Working Oxen—made 11,000,000 pounds less of Cheese—and sheared a million pounds of Wool less. The solution of this great loss of Agricultural wealth may be said to be in the severe and general drouth of 1854. We hope it is. Political Economy has less to fear from the vicissitudes of the seasons, than from the impatience of Labor and fever for wealth, which drain the young from their fathers' farms and gather them in cities and villages.

SIDNEY SMITH'S WAY OF PUTTING DOWN DOGS.—During one of the late Sydney Smith's visits to London, at a dinner at Spencer House, the conversation turned upon dogs. "Oh," said my father, "one of the greatest difficulties I have had with my parishioners has been on the subject of dogs." "How so?" said Lord Spencer. "Why, when I first went down into Yorkshire there had not been a resident clergyman in my parish for 150 years. Each farmer kept a huge mastiff dog, ranging at large, and ready to make his morning meal on clergy or laity, as best suited his particular taste. I could never approach a cottage in pursuit of my calling but I rushed into the jaws of one of the shaggy monsters. I scolded, and preached, and prayed, with out avail; so I determined to try what fear for their pocket might do. Forthwith appeared in the country papers a minute account of a trial of a farmer at the Northampton sessions for keeping dogs unconfined; where the said farmer was not only fined £5 and reprimanded by the magistrates, but sentenced to three months' imprisonment. The effect was wonderful, and the reign of Canibus ceased in the land." "That accounts," said Lord Spencer, "for what has puzzled me and Althrope for many years. We never failed to attend the sessions of Northampton, and we never could find out how we had missed this remarkable dog case."—Life of Sydney Smith, by Lady Holland.

Contrary to all expectations, the south-east district of this county has elected our staunch Republican friend, ORLANDO ELLSWORTH, to the Assembly—giving us one Republican member from this county. The vote of Mr. Ellsworth is 546, and for White, regular democrat, 279,—majority 267.—Sentinel.

☞ We rejoice in the success of our old '36 friend—he deserves it and will make a representative of which Milwaukee may well be proud.—That he is elected in a district largely Democratic shows that his neighbors have a proper appreciation of good sense and honest merit.—Neenah Conservator.

CAPITOL EXTENSION.—The facade of the new dome of the Capitol at Washington, is one fourth erected. The Star says that nine of the eastiron columns of the Capitol Extension—just one-fourth of the entire colonnade of the new dome—and a corresponding number of interior pilasters, are now up, and the work is going rapidly forward. The panel in the new hall of the new House of Representatives, now undergoing the operation of frescoing, is the only panel intended to be completed by the meeting of Congress, and is intended as a specimen of the art for the inspection of Congress, which, it is expected, will make arrangements for the execution of the other panels during the recess of that body.

The Career of a Destroying Angel.

As early as 1850 we hear of a Mrs Cole, in the law records, appearing as the accusatrix of certain parties for the crime of larceny—they having, according to her affidavit, robbed the office of the District Attorney. A second affidavit appears, made shortly after, entirely revoking the accusation, and thus implying the use of hush money, or some similar means of quieting accusers.

Shortly after this Mrs. Cole "turns up" in Charleston, South Carolina, where she appears in the character of mistress to a gentleman in the restaurant business. She stayed with him several months, living in a style of great magnificence and grandeur, until he, poor man, being ruined, was forced to sell out. Report says that she saw between $5,000 and $7,000 of his money during her sojourn with him, and it is a melancholy comment upon her affection for him, that it ceased when his money gave out. She left the unfortunate restaurateur, and sought a more ambitious field for her powers.

An old gentleman of great respectibility was her next lover. His name was Eggleston, and he held a good clerkship in the State Bank of Charleston. It did not take long for Mrs. C. to infatuate the old libertine, nor to make him pay roundly for said infatuation. His salary was by no means equal to her ambitious notions of things as they should be, and he was induced to commit a forgery to keep up the extravagance into which his "pet" ruthlessly plunged both herself and him. For three years their connection continued, and during that time the old gentleman committed forgeries to the amount of $80,000 or over. Of this it is presumed over $40,000 was squandered upon this woman. The frauds were finally discovered, and poor Eggleston imprisoned. Soon after his incarceration, he sent word to his "darling Agnes" that he wished her to come and see him. Her answer shows the depth of her passion for him; "Dear Egg—I haven't time to make calls; besides you are played out."

The agent of a large travelling circus and menagerie next occupied her attention. He was a handsome, wealthy man, of warm, quick temperament, and great social development—just one of those fellows who are not very bad, but always brilliant and agreeable. He conceived for Mrs. Cole, a devoted affection, and was fairly led astray by it. From genuine love his feelings were turned into the channel of sensuousness, and the old story re enacted. He could refuse her nothing—was made to abandon his business and squander his money, until a short twelve months found him a ruined man. Then she threw him over; and after vainly endeavouring to evoke one spark of pity, or the sentiment she had formerly professed to entertain for him within her breast, he blew his brains out, and terminated the sad drama.

Her next "love" but one was Dr. Beatty, who died lately in his hotel. The doctor was a gay man, what is called a "society man," and had some means. Mrs. Cole found it out, and immediately commenced her fascinations upon him. Their relation continued until Beatty's death, and we do not know that she ever had cause to rue the day when he met this "strange woman," unless his conscience may have given him an occasional twinge.—St. Louis News.

OH HUSH!—ROCK THE CRADLE, LIDDY!—It becomes our painful duty to announce that a bouncing baby has actually been born, in due course of time, unto Dr. Hasbrouck. The former will be remembered as the State's fair, bright-eyed and piquant little correspondent, who used to perambulate Pennsylvania avenue, wearing the bloomer breeches, and to lecture on the rights of women and the wrongs of men so eloquently in Temperance Hall on E street. Who that drank to her words of wisdom (while out peeping into her devil may-care's mantelish countenance for a' that) would have imagined that the Doctor could have actually condescended to have a baby, and that, too, a square up to time, as they say in sporting circles. Doctor Doctor!! Doctor!! We blush to record the fact; that their outstanding philosophy failed to prove sufficient to save you from going the—way of all other flesh. Feminine.—Washington Star.

A Storm at Sea.

[BY HENRY J. HATCHETT, A. M.]

The curling wave, with awful roar,
A little bark a sailed;
And pallid fear's distracting power,
O'er all on board prevailed!

Save one, the captain's darling child,
Who steadfast viewed the storm!
And cheerful, with composure smiled,
On danger's threatening form!

"And sport! thou thus," a seaman cried,
"While terrors over whelm!"
"Why should I fear," the boy replied,
"My Father's at the helm!"

So, when our wordly all is reft,
Our earthly helpers gone;
We still have one sure refugeleft,
God helps! and He alone.

Then turn to Him! 'mid sorrows wild,
When woes and wants o'erwhelm,
Remembering, like the fearless child,
Our Father's at the helm!

—Buffalo Express.

LOLA MONTEZ'S LECTURE ON GALLANTRY.—Among many other things she said she thought there is little of the ancient feeling of gallantry left in England. The aristocracy of that country having caught the business, money-getting propensities of the United States. A business and commercial nation might, she said, do a great deal of courting, but it required leisure and the cultivation of romance for the spirit of gallantry to flourish in. Gallantry, in England and the United States, meant now nothing more than flirtation. The Americans, especially, are great adepts in courting. A real American will manage a lady's heart as readily as he will stocks on 'Change." She believed a man was regarded a dull fellow in this country who cannot win a lady's heart, make a thousand dollars, and establish a new bank with the prospective capital of three millions, before breakfast; and she believed it was no unusual thing for him to lose his money, his bank, and his mistress, before supper of the same day. She closed by relating an interesting anecdote of the gallantry of Dr. Franklin, who received a note from a lady in Paris, the very day he was intending to leave for the United States, entreating him to postpone his journey for a single day, to which he sent this gallant answer:—"If Dr. Franklin was engaged to go to Paradise at 8 o'clock in the morning, he would put it off till 4 in the afternoon, for the sake of one more embrace from Madame M." The gentleman, said Lola, who called my attention to this pretty piece of gallantry, affected to laugh at its extravagance and bad French, but I answered him that I had never known a Frenchman who would not forego the idea of Paradise altogether for the sake of a pretty woman.—Philadelphia Ledger.

HOW TO GET TO CONGRESS.—The following story is told, by the Mobile Tribune, of Judge Hawkins, the present Representative to Congress from the state of Florida—a man, by the way, brimful of genuine wit. During the war with the Florida Indians he commanded a volunteer company. On one occasion they fell upon a party of the enemy concealed in a swamp. The Captain sprang upon a log, (with more valor than discretion,) waved his sword, and cheered his men to the charge. Just then he was shot down. One of his officers ran to ask if he was much hurt. "Not very badly," said Hawkins, "just about enough to send me to Congress!" The prediction has now been verified.

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES.

I HAVE JUST OPENED a lot of goods which are too good to sell at auction; I therefore will sell them at private sale, at 20 ₰ cent less than what they are worth, and 50 ₰ cent less than you can purchase them in that city. These goods consist of Black Velvets, Colored Velvets, Twilled Alpacas, some French Merinoes, some all wool Delaines, Silk Velvets, &c. It is astonishing to me how very large our stock is and how superior quality.

I have also just opened, one case, consisting of twelve Ladies Fur and Winter Cloaks, latest style, to be sold at great bargains.

CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

ANYONE wishing to purchase a good stock of Dry Goods, it will pay them to call on the Auctioneer for their entire stock, furniture, &c., and if the stock of goods is very large and is worth more than the rent, fixtures and the balance in cash only. For I will exchange said farm for improved city property, or I will sell said farm on good mortgages, running 1, 2 & 3 years. I will exchange said farm for Wm. & Mississippi R. stocks. Here is a great chance for some one to get a good home, and in a few hours rise on the cars from the city, with everything that one's heart should desire, with a good house and splendid barn, which could rent in Milwaukee for six hundred dollars a year.

CALEB WALL.

N. B.—If the said farm is not sold in thirty days, I want a good, honest, quiet man and his wife to take care of said farm and the house, during the winter, and probably what the spring comes I may conclude to keep the farm. So a chance for some one to get a comfortable home for the winter. Who not care what country they are from, but will require good references. Call or address
